Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, After 23 years of dedicated service to the state of South Dakota, Al Froiland has announced he will retire on November 19, 2010; and,

Whereas, Al began his career with the Department of Labor on November 16, 1987, as an Unemployment Insurance Tax Program representative and evolved into the position of collections supervisor; and,

Whereas, As the collections supervisor, Al was able to "gently" persuade thousands of debtors to submit their payments, doing so with a smile; and,

Whereas, Al's colleagues have appreciated his timeliness in having the morning coffee ready and will remember him as an honest, caring, all-around nice guy, always interested in how you are truly doing; and,

Whereas, Al will spend his retirement with his wife, Sheryl, and trusty side-kick, Newly, will make frequent visits to the "Hog House" to ponder what new "do-dads" to purchase for his Harley, or devote planning time for the next Froiland Brothers tour; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to congratulate Al as his colleagues honor him at a reception on November 19, 2010:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 19, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join his co-workers, family, and many friends in wishing him a healthy, fulfilling, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
